This very attractive villa is situated in the countryside just a few kilometres from both the beach and Saint-Tropez village, and is surrounded by fields of vineyards, olive trees and lavenders. To one side of the property, there is a large swimming pool with an attractive pool house, and to the other, there is a hard tennis court.

The interiors are beautifully decorated and furnished in warm terracottas and yellows. The living areas are spacious and bright, with large doors opening onto a terrace and the garden to one side and on the other, to a lawned courtyard with pots of flowers and a dining area with barbecue. All bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms and doors opening onto the garden.

The pool house offers extra accommodation for two people as there is a double bedroom.

This is the ideal place for families with children or a party of friends, who wish to be close to the beach, yet five minutes drive to all the attractions of St-Tropez
